Agreement

As related to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") (20 U.S.C. Section 1232g), Caduceus International Publishing Inc. agrees:

1. Student records obtained by Caduceus International Publishing Inc. from an educational institution continue to be the property of and under the control of the educational institution. The educational institution retains full ownership rights to the personal information and education records it provides to Caduceus International Publishing Inc..
2. Caduceus International Publishing Inc. users may retain possession and control of their own generated content.
3. Caduceus International Publishing Inc. will not use any information in a student record for any purpose other than those required or specifically permitted by the Caduceus International Publishing Inc. Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy.
4. Parents, legal guardians, or eligible students may review personally identifiable information in the student's records and correct erroneous information by contacting their educational institution. Additionally, Caduceus International Publishing Inc. users may access, correct, update, or delete personal information in their profile by signing into Caduceus International Publishing Inc., accessing their Caduceus International Publishing Inc. account, and making the appropriate changes.
5. Caduceus International Publishing Inc. is committed to maintaining the security and confidentiality of student records. Towards this end, we take the following actions:
  - a. we limit employee access to student data to only those employees with a need to such access to fulfill their job responsibilities;
  - b. we conduct background checks on our employees that may have access to student data;
  - c. we conduct regular employee privacy and data security training and education; and
  - d. we protect personal information with technical, contractual, administrative, and physical security safeguards in order to protect against unauthorized access, release or use.
6. In the event of an unauthorized disclosure of a student's records, Caduceus International Publishing Inc. will promptly notify users unless specifically directed not to provide such notification by law enforcement officials.
7. Caduceus International Publishing Inc. will delete or de-identify personal information when it is no longer needed, upon expiration or termination of our agreement with an educational institution with any deletion or de-identification to be completed according to the terms of our agreement with the educational institution, or at the direction or request of the educational institution.
8. Caduceus International Publishing Inc. agrees to work with educational institutions to ensure compliance with FERPA and the Parties will ensure compliance by providing parents, legal guardians or eligible students with the ability to inspect and review student records and to correct any inaccuracies therein as described above.
9. Caduceus International Publishing Inc. prohibits using personally identifiable information in student records to engage in targeted advertising.
10. Caduceus International Publishing Inc. will not make material changes to our Terms of Use or Privacy Policy, including making significant changes impacting the collection, use, disclosure or retention of data collected without prior notice to the educational user.

As related to the Student Online Personal Information Protection Act (SB 1177 -“SOPIPA”), Caduceus International Publishing Inc agrees:

Prohibitions:

1. Caduceus International Publishing Inc does not target advertising via the Caduceus International Publishing Inc service or on any other website using information about a K-12 student, their families/guardians or educators acquired from a use of the technology.
2. Caduceus International Publishing Inc does not use information, including persistent unique identifiers, created or gathered by the Caduceus International Publishing Inc service to amass a profile about a K–12 student, their families/guardians or educators except in furtherance of K–12 school purposes.
3. Caduceus International Publishing Inc does not and will not sell, rent, or otherwise provide personally identifiable information to any third party for monetary gain.
4. Caduceus International Publishing Inc does not disclose student information unless for legal, regulatory, judicial, safety or operational improvement reasons.

Obligations:

5. Caduceus International Publishing Inc is committed to maintaining the security and confidentiality of pupil records as noted herein.
6. Caduceus International Publishing Inc will delete student information when requested by the school district.
7. Caduceus International Publishing Inc will disclose student information when required by law, for legitimate research purposes and for school purposes to educational agencies.
