

Adventures in the Internet Part 3

ISTE Standards:
Digital Citizen 1.2a, 1.2b

CASEL Competencies:
Responsible Decision-Making
Social Awareness
Self-Awareness
Relationship Skills

HOW DOES THE INTERNET CONNECT TO REAL LIFE?

We cannot trust all of the people on the internet. How did Kittyface trick Faux Paw?
Faux Paw and Kittyface had never met in real life.

- Faux Paw could not see who Kittyface really was.
- She believed what Kittyface told her.

 TIP: Ask for help from an adult as you work on this worksheet!

Words to Know :

- Trusted adult: a person who is very close to you with whom you can share your personal information, like a parent or teacher.
- Internet Stranger: someone who you meet on the internet but you do not know in real life.

Think About:

- What did Curser do to save Faux Paw?
- What could Faux Paw have done differently?

Ask a grown up to help you:

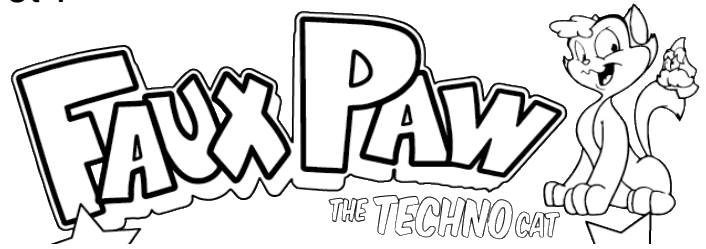

- Print the next page.
- Answer the questions.
- Watch Adventures in the Internet Part 1, 2, and 3 again if you need help remembering.
- Share your work.

I Keep Safe When I Use the Internet!

Faux Paw's Adventures in the Internet

Review Activity Sheet

Name _____

Share this with a grown-up after you are finished.

1) What kinds of personal information should you KEEP protected, and never share with anyone on the computer?

2) If you see anything on the computer that makes you feel uncomfortable, you should: (circle one)

- A. Ignore it.
- B. Turn off your computer.
- C. Tell a trusted adult.
- D. Click the HELP button.

3) It's OK to meet someone that you've met on the internet in person, IF: (circle one)

- A. You meet in a safe, public place.
- B. They promised to bring you a present.
- C. It's someone from your mom or dad's office.
- D. It's never OK.

4) Which of these CAN you share on the internet? (circle one)

- A. Your favorite color.
- B. Your birthday.
- C. The name of your school.
- D. Your address.

i!i iKeepSafe

© 2021. All rights reserved. The character Faux Paw, the names "Faux Paw," "Faux Paw the Techno Cat," "The Techno Cat," and "Peace of mind for families online" are legally protected copyrights of the Internet Keep Safe Coalition.